Personal statement: As an artist, I am constantly seeking new and exciting ways to represent myself and reflect the world around me. I aim to depict a wide range of experiences and be a voice for the unique and unrepresented, as well as find commercial success in the industry!

Professional Background:

- I Began acting in elementary school through performances at Longview Washington's Columbia Theater and the Missoula Children's Theatre, when their traveling troupe came through town.
- Throughout middle school I attended a community program called C.A.S.T (Children's After School Theater) until I started going to highschool and became a student teacher for them.
- During highschool I performed in many productions with the Dana Brown Mainstage Theater in Longview and The Kelso High School Theater in Kelso.
- After high school I attended classes at The American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Los Angeles, California for several months.
- I became the House Manager for Stageworks Northwest Theater in Longview Washington for two years where I would also frequently participate in performances.
- I have worked with and performed for a variety of Portland, Oregon based companies including; Witch Hunt Theater, The Portland Stage Fright Festival, The FUSE Theater Ensemble, IFCC Theater, The Chapel Theater, The American Immersion Theater, The Twilight Theatre Company and Salt & Sage.
- I frequently work with independent film companies including; Drake Dalgleish Films, Dark Fire Productions, Love U Later Productions and Cold Blood Studios.
